REASON STAFF MEMBER IS NOMINATED

Janet Crawford works tirelessly to ensure the students she works with are successful. She is dedicated to her students and any student that she feels needs extra attention. One of her main goals here at MMS is to set the students up for success and to help them learn from their mistakes. She goes above and beyond her job description of paraprofessional because she helps students academically along with their social-emotional needs.

At the start of every new year, Janet begins to build a rapport with her students while supporting them through a transition into a new school year. It is during this time that Janet is able to gain the students' trust that she will be their supporter and motivator. She builds this trust by assisting students with decision-making, organization, giving social cues, and giving them a sense of belonging.

Janet works her magic with the students by evaluating daily situations from all perspectives. She sees the situations not only as an adult working with a child but as a mother, a teacher, or even as another student. She advocates for the students in every aspect of their day whether it be in the classroom, lunchroom, arrival, or dismissal. She looks at the whole child and takes their needs into account. In this way, Janet finds many ways for the students to succeed.

In short, Janet's dedication to the students of Miamisburg is priceless!
