For the 2021-2022 school year, all elementary schools will continue to operate on a rotation schedule (A-E) for the special area classes (art, music, physical education, library and technology). Instead of your child(ren) having the same special area class on the same day every week, your child(ren) will have the same special area class on every A,B,C,D, or E day, making the number of class meetings balanced over the course of the year. For example, if your child has art on “B” day, they will always have art when the “B” appears on this calendar (this information is also available digitally on your building's Google calendar).

Each school will implement procedures to remind students as to the schedule and help them be prepared for their varied special area classes. Please note that this schedule will not be affected by unscheduled school cancellations, such as a snow day. These days will simply be missed.
